11th – 18th October 2014: Silent Illumination 7-night Retreat
Leader: Fiona Nuttall. Venue: Maenllwyd, Wales
Silent Illumination is a profound meditation practice which leads to a mind of great calmness and insight, using ancient Chinese Zen methods which are just as applicable to the modern West. This seven-night silent retreat is an opportunity to learn and deepen this practice through intensive meditation, with instruction and personal guidance by individual interviews with an experienced teacher. Whether or not a breakthrough to Enlightenment may occur, establishing a practice gives a firm basis for subsequent ongoing mindfulness in everyday life.

8th – 13th November 2014: Western Zen 5-night Retreat
Leader: Hilary Richards. Venue: Maenllwyd, Wales
Who am I? Thoroughly confronting this question can take us directly to the centre of our being. Over the course of this five-day retreat you will investigate the question "Who am I?" within a standard retreat framework, using silent meditation in conjunction with a unique method of verbal inquiry. This format allows you to use words to go beyond words and thereby enter the main gate of Chan.

The intensive nature of this process of inquiry drives each practitioner into a self-presentation that is difficult to experience in other ways. To guide and support you, personal interviews with the teachers are offered regularly throughout the retreat. With whole-hearted engagement this retreat may lead to the acceptance of self, the experience of "self at ease," and may even provide an opportunity for direct insight into the ground of being.
6th – 13th December 2014: Shattering the Great Doubt 7-night Retreat
Leader: Simon Child. Venue: Maenllwyd, Wales
The ancient Chinese Zen practices of investigating Huatou and Gongan (Koan) are best practised in a supportive environment such as this intensive silent Chan retreat. As one becomes deeply absorbed in the practice, mental constructions drop away and one is confronted by a realisation that one does not know the nature of existence and one’s fundamental assumptions of life are groundless. Staying with and cultivating this ‘doubt’, it can become all-consuming ‘Great doubt’ which may ‘shatter’, giving a direct insight into reality which may be what is known as an Enlightenment experience.

12th – 14th December 2014: Weekend Chan Retreat
Leader: Jake Lyne. Venue: Bala Brook Retreat Centre, Devon
This is an opportunity to learn the basic techniques of Chan meditation and for experienced practitioners to deepen their practice. The retreat will consist of periods of sitting meditation, walking meditation and exercises. There will be Dharma talks; otherwise the retreat will be held in silence. There will also be an opportunity for private interviews for participants to question and investigate their practice. Open equally to beginners and established meditators.

Please send us articles for The New Chan Forum

Books: We would like to include in each issue an introduction to a book that beginners read, like "Zen Mind, Beginners Mind," "Everyday Zen," or, "Hoofprint of the Ox" by Master Sheng Yen. Alternatively please think about writing an introduction to a key text that is important to your Chan, such as “The Platform Sutra,” or “Poems of Enlightenment” (with commentary by Master Sheng Yen). By way of introduction for beginners, some descriptions and commentaries on the central sutras would be particularly helpful too.

Images: Artwork, photographs, poems, haiku and haibun would be very much appreciated.

Articles: Any other lively articles relevant to Chan learning and Chan living would be most welcome. We need to create The New Chan Forum for ourselves, in the way we want it to be. And please keep the retreat reports coming! They are very highly valued contributions to the understanding of the power of the retreat process.

If any of these things stimulate you then please contact the editors, Pat Simmons and George Marsh, who will be more than happy to discuss with you how any idea can be taken forward. They can be contacted at editor@westernchanfellowship.org
